

tracey's fixing the broken world of work

...one cartwheel at a time!

system + process + team

Tracey Foulkes understands that work as a concept is broken. With the average employee spending as much as 90% of their day working, Tracey believes that every effort should be made to make work a positive experience. As an advocate for effortlessness, Tracey's never been afraid to push back on what's perceived as the norm. Her work inspires a number of leading companies to consider the future of work, redefine their culture and cultivate productive teams.

As the founder and COO of Ireland based, This is Productivity, a group of companies spanning 3 continents, she has made it her mission to understand the integration of systems, process and people at a very deep level. Tracey's passion to improve the way we work, making it more productive than ever before, provides the basis for her inspirational talks. Tracey is based in Wellington, South Africa and travels internationally.

Her recent talks include:

CHEMISTRY, LOVE + THE TEAM OF 2050

- > What chemistry brings to teams
- > How great teams can differentiate in a society bent on perfection
- > Why teams need to be thinking of 2050

SCREW AGILE – LET'S PLAY!

- > What project management means to high performance teams
- > Why sales centric shouldn't be your success strategy
- > How play can be applied to work
